Please make your check for the ball to: Rainbows For Kids

The Gateway To The Wind Ball is a charity gala for Rainbows For Kids, a 501(c)(3) charity for families of children with cancer and other serious situations. Antebellum ball-wear or formal dress is encouraged.

- Add $35 on the Rainbows For Kids check per book for Herb Bridge's "The Filming of Gone With The Wind." He will be at the ball to autograph the books; proceeds go to Rainbows For Kids.

Saturday November 6, 2010 • 6:30 p.m. • Orlando Gardens Banquet Center

The Gateway To The Wind Ball* is the theme of the annual charity gala for Rainbows For Kids, a 501 (c) (3) charity. (www.RainbowsForKids.org)

Rainbows For Kids works with families of children with cancer, providing fun activities (including an annual baseball team, parties, trips to the theater, bowling parties, etc.), as well as support material, sponsorship for a free camp for kids with cancer, and much more. Author Sally Tippett Rains, whose family started the charity, is the volunteer Executive Director. There are no paid employees, everyone is a volunteer. We appreciate your support for these families who are going through such a tough time.

$100 Ticket Includes:

- Private VIP Reception, Open Bar, Appetizers
- Dinner Buffet
- Souvenir Gift
- Live and Silent Auction

Party combines "Then" and "Now"... Two bands One is a Civil War era duo, the second one is a rock band. There will be Virginia Reel and other dancing.

This Will Be One Rockin' Fun Party!

Antebellum "ball" wear or formal dress is encouraged but not required

NOTE: Separate check required for the ball, tax deductible as determined by the law. Make check to Rainbows For Kids, and add $35 each for your copy (or copies) of "The Filming of Gone With the Wind," by Herb Bridges, who will be at the ball signing books. Proceeds from the sales of this book will go to Rainbows For Kids.
